

The Church & My Role

JUNE 2021

Questions for Deeper Reflection

1. Today, we would consider Saul to be: a religious fanatic, a bigot and wicked. But, God chose him to be: an apostle, a missionary, and a saint! God's work does not always fit human expectations; God often surprises us. No one is hopeless. Who comes to your mind as you read this? What might God be asking of you?
2. If you were brought to trial on the charge of being a Christian, would there be enough evidence to convict you? What might God be asking of you?
3. God had to knock Saul off his horse and shatter Peter's narrow-mindedness. What might God be asking of you?

INSPIRATION FROM REGNUM CHRISTI

As we end this year of mini-retreats, and focus on The Church & My Role, here's how Regnum Christi assists people with that goal:

“ Regnum Christi Movement proposes a Christian way of life. It presents itself as one path among many to respond to God's invitation to live the faith of the Church in an integral, dynamic and enthusiastic way. Thus, rather than adding new commitments, it helps its members to live those that derive from their baptism. Far from being an additional demand to fit in alongside their marriage, family and social duties, it offers its members a unifying vehicle to live these duties in the conviction that through them they fulfill their mission of being Christian leaven in the world. ”
