

Questions for Deeper Reflection

In the Wilderness

NOVEMBER 2020

1. The book of Numbers is a somewhat painful book, with the theme being: fools learn by experience. God's chosen people were not yet mature in faith or obedience. Where do I need to grow in my spiritual maturity?
2. The real struggle for the Israelites was not 40 years in the desert, but in accepting their new identity as God's chosen people. How am I living out my identity as being chosen by God, for His purposes?
3. Israel's lessons are lessons for me, as well. I must let go of my plans, trust, and walk WITH God. What does my walking WITH God look like these days and where could I grow?
