

THREE TO GET MARRIED

Conscience Issues , Married Love & the Sacrament of Reconciliation

Overview:

Making good moral choices is a life-long challenge, and good choices are necessary for a happy marriage. Developing your conscience is about living life, not following a rule book. How do we mature our consciences together in our marriage?

Things to Remember...

- ◆ How we treat each other is the first place we apply our conscience.
- ◆ It's never ok to make someone go against his or her conscience.
- ◆ No one is a perfect angel. We all have blind spots.
- ◆ Guilt serves a purpose: to recognize our blind spots and inspire healthy changes.
